D'AMICO GRIFFIN & PETTINICCHI IS A BOUTIQUE FIRM that restricts its practice to personal injury, medical negligence, nursing home negligence and divorce. The firm's hallmark is meticulous, behind-the-scenes research and preparation. "We are blessed to have some of the most experienced, well-respected, professional and committed staff providing the highest level of service to our clients," says Michael D'Amico.

HELPING PUT LIVES BACK TOGETHER Because the firm works exclusively with personal injury, medical negligence, nursing home negligence and divorce, clients often arrive having been traumatized by their experience. "All of us care deeply about the people we represent, and we take our caring seriously," D'Amico says. "Our involvement takes the burden off our clients, helps them to rebuild their lives and has spurred better legislation to avoid similar tragedies so that our clients feel that they or their loved ones have not suffered in vain."

D'AMICO NAMED TO CONNECTICUT SUPER LAWYERS® FOR FIFTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR "I've always wanted to discover the facts behind a case," says D'Amico. "I love a good mystery, and reading detective novels as a child has helped fuel my passion for the law and the search for the truth." D'Amico is a board-certified civil trial specialist, and serves on the board of governors of the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association. A member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum, the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, a gold member of the Elite Lawyers of America, listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers and having achieved an AV-rating by Martindale-Hubbell®, his high-profile injury cases have been featured in the national media. D'Amico has a special interest in wrongful death cases and has successfully resolved multiple claims that have resulted in substantial, just settlements that brought closure to families. "This is emotionally wrenching and complex work, but truly professionally fulfilling," he says. "I feel a genuine calling to help these victims."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE D'Amico Griffin & Pettinicchi gives a voice to people in Connecticut who have suffered serious personal injuries, medical negligence and nursing home negligence—and that voice extends to the family members of those who have died a wrongful death due to negligence. The firm also assists clients through the emotional turmoil of divorce so they can move forward with their lives.
