ESTEEMED LITIGATORS WITH A PASSION FOR JUSTICE

With nearly a quarter-century of experience, D'Amico Griffin & Pettinicchi, LLC has earned a stellar reputation for its extensive legal knowledge and skill. "Our staff works as a team to provide the highest level of service," says Michael A. D'Amico, partner and a founder of the firm.

HIGHEST ETHICAL STANDARDS The firm is well-known and respected for upholding the highest ethical standards. Its compassion and honesty of character have earned the gratitude of deeply hurting clients. It is known for its thorough and meticulous investigation and preparation for each case, frequently using focus groups to assist in best strategies for upcoming trials. "We employ whatever resources are necessary to ensure that clients get the justice they deserve," says partner Mark F. Griffin.

ADVOCATES FOR THE VOICELESS Recognized as leaders in handling cases of medical and nursing home negligence, personal injury and family law, firm attorneys give voice to the people of Connecticut who have suffered serious personal injuries or who are victims of medical malpractice. They consistently keep an eye on legislation to support victims and ensure individual rights are not negatively affected. The firm strongly advocates for those who might be taken advantage of or who cannot speak for themselves.

The firm is AV-rated, the highest peer review rating, listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers and recognized by The Best Lawyers in America. D'Amico and Griffin have been consistently recognized on the Connecticut Super Lawyers list. D'Amico concentrates on nursing home and medical malpractice; Griffin focuses on personal injury. Both are life members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. Partner Thomas P. Pettinicchi handles matrimonial law, divorce mediation and personal injury cases.
